UPON COMPLETION OF THIS COURSE THE STUDENT WILL:
A. Examine their self perception and the perception of others
B. Gain an appreciation of diverse cultures
C. Develop varied solutions for problems

PROCEDURES FOR ACCOMPLISHING OBJECTIVES:
A. Lectures on specific areas of study
B. Completion of required textual readings
C. Participation in Class
D. Completion of Three Written Assignments

STUDENT REQUIREMENTS FOR SUCCESSFUL COURSE COMPLETION:
A. Regular attendance (see below)
B. Completion of required textual readings
C. Satisfactory completion of three reflection papers with an expected length of at least two pages, computer generated
D. It should be understood that the above listed requirements are minimal for passing with a grade “C”. Failure to accomplish any or all of the above will result in a grade “D” or “F” depending upon individual circumstances. The instructor reserves the right to assign a Withdrawal to a student who, in opinion of the instructor, is not showing satisfactory progress toward completion of the course objectives.

ATTENDANCE:
The student is expected to attend all class meetings. Habitual lateness will result in a lower grade. Each absence will affect final grade. Sickness, death or personal injury shall constitute an excused absence.

GRADING PRACTICES:
Following is the grading breakdown:
1. Class participation........55%
2. Reports.......................45%

TEXT: INTERPERSONAL COMMUNICATION relating to others
Fourth edition, by Steven A. Beebe, Susan J. Beebe, Mark V. Redmond
Weekly Course Outline:
1. Introduction/evaluations
2. Human communication
3. Self perception
4. Perception of others
5. Ethnic diversity/culture
6. Listening vs. hearing
7. Language
8. Non verbal communication
9. Problem solving
10. Role playing
11. Relationships
12. Techno relationships
13. Last week review