b. The Quality of Life Subcommittee shall concern itself with issues that affect the welfare of the faculty, staff and students while on campus. Following discussions, research, and data collection the subcommittee shall make recommendations to the appropriate administrative offices or present resolutions to Congress as appropriate. Specific charges shall include:
i. To meet with the Associate Dean of Student Services as appropriate.

ii. To review proposed student affairs programs and policies.

iii. To solicit faculty/professional staff input regarding the maintenance and safe use of campus facilities.

iv. To initiate research to support the improvement of the Eastern Campus environment, particularly with regard to proposals of green initiatives.

v. To designate one representative with a two-year term to the Strategic Planning Council.

vi. To annually constitute an ad-hoc committee consisting of four members serving under the Quality of Life Chairperson for the purpose of reviewing nominations and selecting the recipient of the Governance Award for Academic Excellence and Service.

Section 4 Representation on College and Campus Committees

Congress members who are selected or elected to represent the Congress at campus-based or college-wide committees are charged with serving as the spokesperson for the Congress. By agreeing to serve as a Governance representative on a committee, the representative is agreeing to be the eyes, ears, and voice of the Congress. As a professional, the individual and disciplinary perspectives are to be valued, but as the Congress representative, the primary role is to advance the broader interests of the Congress. The representative is expected to attend all meetings of the committee and to report back to Congress the important decisions and actions taken by the committee. The representative is also responsible for soliciting feedback from the Congress regarding the ongoing work of the committee, and to share that feedback at the committee meetings.

Section 5 Procedure

All meetings of the Congress and its committees shall be conducted by the rules of parliamentary procedure as set forth by the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

Section 6 Appointments
The Congress Chairperson may appoint faculty members temporarily to fill any vacancies until an election is held or an appointment is made by the Executive Committee.

Section 7   Removal from Office

Congress officers may be removed from office upon two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present at a Congress meeting at which a quorum is present. All other officers may be removed upon two-thirds (2/3) vote of the committee membership.

Section 8   Removal from Committee

Members may be removed from a committee upon recommendation by the committee Chairperson to the Congress Executive Committee. A Congress member serving on a college-wide committee who fails to present committee reports to Congress may be removed and replaced by the Congress Executive Committee.

Section 9   Amendments

Bylaws amendments may be initiated by any Congress member through a petition to the Chairperson. These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present at a Congress meeting at which a quorum is present. Copies of proposed amendments must be submitted in writing to all members of the Congress at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting at which they will appear on the agenda.
