TITLE IX

Know Your Rights

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.

--Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972

Suffolk
COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

2016-2017

WHAT IS TITLE IX?

Title IX is a federal law that protects all students, employees, vendors, visitors, volunteers and guests of Suffolk County Community College from sex discrimination and all forms of sexual misconduct.

Suffolk County Community College is dedicated to providing an environment that is conducive to intellectual and personal growth, while providing a safe and welcoming environment.

Title IX covers all educational programs and activities at the College including:

- Admissions, financial aid, scholarships, funding
- Courses, academic programs, research, and other educational activities
- Career guidance, counseling, and other educational support services
- Athletics (scholastic, intercollegiate, club or intramural)
- Student clubs and organizations, and campus activities
- Employment and training for students, faculty, and staff

College policies prohibit all forms of discrimination, harassment, and sexual misconduct. This includes, but is not limited to, acts of:

- sexual violence
- sexual threats or intimidation
- sexual coercion
- sexual harassment
- stalking
- dating and intimate partner violence
- domestic violence

These can be verbal, non-verbal, physical, written, or electronic (i.e. text or social media) and may be committed by or against any individual, regardless of gender, sexual orientation or gender identity.

The College has a duty to promptly address complaints of sex discrimination, including sexual harassment and sexual violence, to limit the effects of the discrimination and to prevent its recurrence. We understand that this can be difficult to discuss. Notification to one of the College resources is critical to fulfilling our commitment to you.

The College has a Sexual Violence Response policy that includes information on reporting, resources, protection, accommodations and the conduct process. Students have a Bill of Rights related to sexual violence reporting.

HOW DOES TITLE IX HELP VICTIMS?

If you are a victim of sexual violence, the College has a team ready to help you. This team includes trained members of Student Affairs, Public Safety, and the Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Coordinators. This team provides information to you about your rights, notifies you about resources, and offers reasonable interim measures, such as a change in schedule, a no-contact order or other actions. Resources, information and policies are located on the College website at:

<http://department.sunysuffolk.edu/LegalAffairs/5122.asp>

Anyone who experiences, observes or hears about an incident should report it to the Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator oversees the complaint process, answers questions, and offers assistance and services to anyone experiencing harassment, discrimination or sexual violence.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE A VICTIM OF SEXUAL ASSAULT

- Get to a safe place. For example, someone's home, the nearest hospital or police precinct.
- Call 911 to be taken to an emergency room for medical care and/or for immediate police protection and assistance. Tell the 911 operator what has happened and request to be sent to a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) center. SANE services are considered the best and most victim-centered approach to acute health care for sexual assault patients. Within 96 hours of an assault, you can get a Sexual Assault Forensic Examination. You will receive a complete medical evaluation, including a physical examination, treatment, evidence collection, and counseling. In Suffolk County, there are SANE Centers at Good Samaritan Hospital, Stony Brook University Hospital, and Peconic Bay Medical Center.
- Preserve physical evidence. If at all possible, do not bathe, change clothing, throw any clothes away, use the restroom or brush your teeth. This is important for the evidence collection process that will occur at the hospital.
- Talk to someone you trust and seek counseling. The Campus Mental Health Coordinators can refer you to an advocate that can discuss your options and refer you to other services. Victims of a sexual assault often feel guilt, anger, fear or grief. Trained professionals will help you deal with the physical and psychological trauma that you have experienced. Medical services are also provided through Student Health Services. All identifying information is confidential.
- Call the police. Sexual Assault is a crime. Suffolk County Community College strongly recommends that all crimes be reported to local law enforcement. Law enforcement personnel can take a formal report at the hospital. It is critical that all information and evidence be obtained as soon as possible. Victims do not need to make the decision to press charges at the time of the report.

REPORTING A COMPLAINT

You have the right to make a report to Public Safety, local law enforcement, and/or State Police, or to choose not to report; to report the incident to the College; to be protected by the College from retaliation for reporting an incident; and to receive assistance, support, and resources from the College. There are certain immediate steps that may be taken to help you feel safe, and you may change your mind about participating in the process at any time.

- Contact Public Safety at any time by calling (631) 451-4242 or 311 from any College phone.
- It is the policy of the College to protect the confidentiality of those involved in a complaint. There are confidential reporting options outlined in the Options for Confidentially Disclosing Sexual Violence Policy.
- There are significant differences between the College disciplinary process and the criminal justice process. For a summary of these differences in plain language see: <http://system.suny.edu/media/suny/Content-assets/documents/sexualviolenceprevention/College-and-Criminal-Process-Resource.pdf>
- For student complaints against another student report to the Campus Associate Dean of Student Services/Deputy Title IX Coordinator at each campus. Procedures are outlined in the Student Handbook and Student Code of Conduct: depthome.sunysuffolk.edu/LegalAffairs/Docs/F7StudentCodeofConduct.pdf
- For student complaints against a College employee, visitor, volunteer or guest report to the Title IX Coordinator. The process can be found in College's Sexual Harassment Complaint procedures: depthome.sunysuffolk.edu/LegalAffairs/Docs/BOTPolicies/SexualHarassStudentpolicy.pdf
- Retaliation against anyone who reports an incident or participates in the investigative process is prohibited. The College ensures respectful treatment and equitable access to resources for all parties involved.
