

SHEOL OLD TESTAMENT

JOB 14

(7) "for there is hope for a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that its shoots will not cease. (8) Though its root grow old in the earth, and its stump die in the ground, (9) yet at the scent of water it will bud and put forth branches like a young plant. (10) But man dies, and is laid low; man breathes his last, and where is he? (11) As waters fail from a lake, and a river wastes away and dries up, (12) so man lies down and rises not again; till the heavens are no more he will not awake, or be roused out of his sleep. (13) Oh that thou wouldest hide me in She'ol, that thou wouldest conceal me until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me! (14) If a man die, shall he live again? All the days of service I would wait,

JOB 7

(7) "Remember that my life is a breath; my eye will never again see good. (8) The eye of him who sees me will behold me no more; while thy eyes are upon me, I shall be gone. (9) As the cloud fades and vanishes, so he who goes down to Sheol does not come up; (10) he returns no more to his house, nor does his place know him anymore.

DANIEL 12

(1) "At that time shall arise Michael, the great prince who has charge of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never has been since there was a nation till that time; but at that time your people shall be delivered, every one whose name shall be found written in the book. (2) And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. (3) And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the firmament; and those who turn man to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever. (4) But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, until the time of the end.

PSALMS 49

The end of those who are pleased with their portion. Selah (14) Like sheep they are appointed for Sheol; Death shall be their shepherd; straight to the grave they descend, and their form shall waste away; Sheol shall be their home. (15) But God will ransom my soul from the power of Sheol, for he will receive me.
