

Desire2Learn Can Streamline Your Course Management

JoAnn Gushue, Associate Professor of Business and Technology, will provide a tour of D2L course management system software. She will demonstrate how using D2L can help make your course management more efficient. Some of the features will include adding D2L classes to Banner, the “student locker” feature, gradebook, storing course content, and submitting assignments and grades electronically. If you are unsure about how D2L can benefit your teaching, this workshop will show you how, and much more.
